HOT DAYS - COOL PLAYSCHEAPER BY THE DOZEN

Sept. 16 - Oct. 3, 2010

Adapted by Christopher Sergel.
From the book by Frank Gilbreth
and Ernestine Gilbreth Carey

"What works in the factory works in the home," father tells his family. Told in flashback style by the two characters playing the children who authored the book, the show captures the strictness of the efficiency expert father and his underlying love and caring for his 12 children. This charming comedy is the real life story of the real-life Gilbreth family, a nostalgic look into what families used to be in a gentler time. The original book has been translated into more than fifty-three languages and made into two major motion pictures! One of the most popular family comedies ever!!!

"Always entertaining, occasionally hilarious, occasionally touching."

Run for Your Wife

Dec. 2 - 19, 2010

By Ray Cooney

One of the most popular plays ever, this madcap comedy is the story of mischievous London cab driver, John Smith, who has two wives, two lives and a tight schedule to keep! Trouble brews when Smith is mugged and ends up in the hospital. When two addresses are discovered, the police investigate and Smith becomes hilariously entangled in his own hopeless attempts to explain himself. Complications and cases of mistaken identity ensue as Smith tries to keep both wives from finding out about each other.

"You will need to bring someone to drive you home.

Drunk with laughter would be the cause"

Pump Boys and Dinettes

Jan. 13 - 30, 2011

Music, book and lyrics by John Foley,
Mark Hardwick, Debra Monk, Cass
Morgan, John Schimmel, Jim Wann

This Tony nominated toe-tapping show is a charming musical tribute to life along the open road. The pump boys sell high octane fuel on North Carolina's Highway 57 and the sassy dinettes, Prudie and Rhett Cupp, run the Double Cupp Diner next door. Between changing tires and baking pies, the gang performs a rousing, down-home mix of country western, rock n' roll, and blues in this charming tale of friendship, romance and life's simple pleasures. With a nice blend of country, folk, old-time rock, blue grass, Cajun, with gospel thrown in, Pump Boys and Dinettes is a gas of a show!

"Pump Boys finds music and romance amidst greasy oil changes, thick slices of pie and the great American musical highway." (six years running!)

The Sound of Music

Feb. 24 - Mar. 20, 2011

Rogers & Hammerstein

Truly the most beloved musical of all time, THE SOUND OF MUSIC radiates with warmth and poignancy by following the story of a nun who brings the love of music back to the family that hires her as a nanny. Based on the real life story of the Von Trapp family, the show features the songs "Do-Re-Mi," "My Favorite Things," and of course, the majestic "Climb Every Mountain." With "raindrops on roses and whiskers on kittens," this musical will charm its way into your heart no matter how often you see it.

"Truly one of the greatest musicals of all time"

Dearly Departed

Apr. 14 - May 1, 2011

By David Bottrell and Jessie Jones

From the moment father Bud Turpin keels over at the breakfast table right on through his burial in the "Gentleman Farmer" coffin, the show makes it clear that there's more to living and dying in the Bible Belt than you can shake a corn dog at. Set somewhere south of the Mason Dixon line, we are told the story of father Turpin's funeral and its aftermath, not to mention the dizzying array of crazies who are attached to him. Dearly Departed is the zaniest show you will ever see.

"Dearly Departed is drop dead funny...but don't take our word, see it yourself."
